CCCU Learning and Teaching Conference Schedule

Human Intelligence in an age of Artificial Intelligence

Wednesday 15th November 2023, 12:00-16:00, Verena Holmes

12:00-12:30	Registration & Refreshments		VH.0.91 (Foyer) & VH.3.90b (3rd Floor area)
12:30-12:45	Opening Address	Prof Rama Thirunamachandran	VH.3.90b
13:00-13:50	Parallel Sessions 1, 2 & 3
	Session 1 - Lightening Talks		VH.3.03 (Board room)
	Jodie Calleja, Julie Rees & Steve Peters	The importance of human connection in libraries
	Dr Bojan Koltaj	Dyslexic student and AI: reading, comprehension and analysis of articles with chatpdf
	Daniel Clark	The Grand Hallucination: Why a deficit model of AI Literacy is problematic
	John Hoyle & Sian Robson	AI Alchemy: Transforming Careers!
	Session 2 - Lightening Talks		VH.0.04 (Michael Wright Lecture Theatre)
	Jaspal Kaur Sadhu Singh & Kos Siliafis	Reflections on Legal and Ethical Challenges of Generative AI Technology as a Learning and Teaching Tool
	William Henniker	Online Learning and University Community Management through Discord

	Laura Hackett	"A Bittersweet Story": climate change from the perspective of a chocolate bar
	Session 3 - Interactive Workshop	VH.3.90a (3rd Floor area)
	Dr Jennie Bristow, Dr Jesse Potter, Dr Anwesa Chatterjee & Dr Sarah Cant	'Why game your education?' Inspiring students through subjects
14:00-14:50	Parallel Sessions 4, 5 & 6
	Session 4 - Interactive Workshop	VH.3.03 (Board room)
	Fiona Yardley & Samuel Clarke	How can the core educational purpose of employability be enhanced by students' use of AI?
	Session 5 - Solutions Room	VH.3.90a (3rd Floor area)
	Prof Berry Billingsley	How do we make AI fair and healthy? Unpacking what we want for our approach to AI by considering Assessment, Learning and Research.
	Session 6 - "Kicking the Hornet's Nest"	VH.0.04 (Michael Wright Lecture Theatre)
	Hosted by Shauna McCusker & Janet Beale, in collaboration with LTE	"Alexa, what is the difference between human and artificial intelligence?
14.50-15:00	Introducing the new Teaching Excellence Awards & today's Keynote Speaker, Dr Sarah Eaton	Prof Niamh Downing	VH.0.04 (Michael Wright Lecture Theatre)
15.00-16:00	Keynote Address (Virtual) Dr Sarah Eaton, University of Calgary	"Human Intelligence in an age of Artificial Intelligence: Looking Beyond Today"	VH.0.04 (Michael Wright Lecture Theatre)