

9.30 - 9.45	Welcome and introductions: Professor Alison Honour, Deputy Vice-Chancellor Dan Bichener, Students' Union President
9.45 - 10.30	Keynote: Professor Jason Arday, University of Glasgow Singing Our Own Song: Rethinking Decolonising in the Academy
10.30 - 10.45	Q&A
10.45 - 11.00	Break
11.00 - 11.15	The key principles of Partnership in Learning. Dr. Claire Loffman, Senior Academic Developer, LTE
11.15 - 11.35	Student partnership at Christ Church Business School: Transforming the student experience. Cécile Tschirhart (Director of Learning and Teaching, Christ Church Business School), Isatou Faye (3rd Year BSc Logistics and ESOP student partner).
11.35 - 11.55	The Case of Viga & Wallace - a cross faculty project to co-produce a teaching resource. Julie Weir (SL Medicine, Health & Social Care, School of Allied & Public Health, BSc Paramedic Science); Mike Stephens (Lecturer, Medicine, Health & Social Care, School of Allied & Public Health, BSc Paramedic Science). Laine Slater (Combined Hons BA in Creative Writing & Media and Communications); Paul McGranaghan (freelance sound recordist, sound designer and film maker); Kevin Lawton-Barret (Senior Lecturer, Forensic Investigation, School of Law, Policing and Social Sciences); Dan Millen (Combined Hons BA in Creative Writing & Media and Communications); Louise Devismes (Combined Hons BA in Creative Writing & Media and Communications); Professor Carolyn Oulton (School of Humanities, PD Creative and Professional Writing).
11.55 - 12.15	Reflections on Co-creating a Virtual Placement: Bridging the Gap to Leadership. Mary Makinde (Senior Lecturer in Forensic Investigation/Strategic Lead: Closing Our Gap, Faculty of Science, Engineering and Social Sciences). Students – names to be confirmed, CCCU and University of Brighton.
12.15 - 12.35	The Benefits of Peer Mentoring in Partnership with Students. Co-presented with Peer Mentors including Rose Phillips (L6 BA Psychology), and Kath Abiker (Academic Strategic Lead: Student Retention, Inclusion and Success).
12.35	Close of Conference